THE IMMERSIVE, GOTHIC WORLD OF A REMARKABLE NEW ZEALAND ARTIST

This stunning book is a darkly evocative exploration of the enigmatic and powerful work of New Zealand artist Jason Greig, whose monoprints and drawings conjure a singular world of mythic archetypes, inner torment and gothic seduction.

Richly illustrated, it offers a thematic and visual journey through Greig's practice, drawing connections to old master printmakers such as Goya and Redon while grounding his work within a contemporary, often transgressive cultural framework. Through the deep critical insights of three highly regarded curators and arts writers and stunning visuals, Jason Greig Blood Is Thicker immerses readers in an unsettling, seductive world, one where art becomes ritual, and darkness reveals its strange, unyielding beauty.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Aaron Lister is senior curator at City Gallery Wellington Te Whare Toi. He was previously exhibitions curator at the National Library of New Zealand, a lecturer in the art history departments of Victoria University of Wellington Te Herenga Waka and the University of Otago. He is a trustee of CIRCUIT Artist Moving Image Aotearoa New Zealand, and is one half of Curator of Screams, a collaborative project with Dr Chelsea Nichols that explores the tethering of contemporary art and horror films.

Chelsea Nicholls is the senior curator at The Dowse Art Museum in Lower Hutt, New Zealand. Her PhD from Oxford focused on human curiosities in modern art. She has worked in museums in Canada, the United Kingdom and New Zealand, including at Te Papa.
